ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tucson Showing Up for Racial Justice (SURJ) believes that if we are to dismantle white supremacy, we must undermine support for racist policies and practices in white communities. This means we must move white people who are with us into action, and also talk with folks who are conflicted about working towards racial justice. Tucson SURJ wants to spend some time this summer in the streets talking to other white people about the current political moment we are in, what issues, fears and hopes our people are facing, and how we can move towards racial and economic justice together.

Join us for our fourth and final SURJ Spring dialogue: Showing Up for Racial Justice at the Doors

What: Showing up for Racial Justice at the Doors dialogue and canvassing training

When: Saturday June 11th 2:30 pm

Where: Downtown library, downstairs conference room (101 N. Stone)
